2010 3-on-3 Rules:

- ? All first-, second- and third-place teams at a 2010 NSGA qualifying games will qualify for the 2011 Summer National Senior Games.
- ? Team rosters shall be limited to 10 persons, including non-playing coaches, non-playing captains and non-playing bench personnel, with a maximum of one out-of-state player, except as otherwise permitted. Teams in the 70+, 75+ and 80+ age divisions may have three out-of-state players on their rosters.
- ? Forfeits shall be scored 2-0.
- ? Ties for seeding will be broken in the following manner:
 - o Head to Head Record
 - o Record Vs. Common Opponent
 - o Points Allowed
 - o Points Scored
 - o Coin Toss
- ? Teams must have a minimum of three players on the floor to start a game. Teams may continue/finish with a minimum of two players on the floor.
- ? Playing time shall be two halves of 12 minutes of a continuously running clock with an intermission of five minutes. In the last two minutes of each half, the clock will stop in accordance with normal basketball rules.

- ? A tie score at the end of regulation time will result in a three-minute stop clock overtime period with ball possession determined by a coin flip. If the game is still tied, subsequent three-minute periods shall be played until the tie is broken.
- ? Two time-outs are permitted per team per half. If a game proceeds to overtime, each team shall receive no more than one additional time-out, regardless of the number of overtimes. Time-outs shall be 30 seconds in duration. The clock will not run during time-outs.
- ? Substitutions may be made after a basket, foul shot, stoppage of play or any other time an official beckons the player onto the court.
- ? The game shall be played using the three-point line as the "check line."The ball shall be returned to a point behind the check line after each change of possession as follows:
 - o After a made basket and all dead ball situations, the ball shall be placed in play from the top of the key. The ball must be advanced into play by means of a pass to a teammate. The teammate receiving the pass may be in front of or behind the check line.
 - o After a turnover or defensive rebound, the ball may be returned to any point behind the check line. The player returning the ball behind the check line shall be in possession of the ball with both feet behind the line. The penalty for failure to be in possession of the ball with both feet behind the line shall be loss of possession. The player who returns the ball behind the line may maintain possession and attempt to score.
- ? Defenders may not cross the check line to guard the player throwing in the ball until after that player has made the first pass.
- ? A player is disqualified on his/her fifth foul. Technical fouls will be assessed in accordance with NCAA rules.
- ? All personal and technical fouls shall be counted against a team total. After the seventh team foul, a bonus shall be awarded for the remainder of the game. Penalties for fouls shall be as set forth below.
- ? Prior to the seventh team foul:
 - o any common foul shall result in loss of possession for the offending team;
 - o any player control foul shall result in disallowing a converted basket and loss of possession;
 - o any shooting foul with a missed basket shall result in two free throws, and the offended team shall retain possession;
 - o and any shooting foul with a converted basket shall result in the basket being awarded along with one free throw, and the offended team shall retain possession.
- ? Beginning with the seventh team foul:
 - o any common foul shall result in a single free throw and the offended team shall retain possession;
 - o any player control foul shall result in disallowing a converted basket and in a single free throw which, if made, shall entitle the shooter to a second free throw, and the offended team shall retain possession;
 - o any shooting foul with a missed basket shall result in two free throws, and the offended team shall retain possession;
 - o and any shooting foul with a converted basket shall result in the basket being awarded along with one free throw, and the offended team will retain possession.
- ? Beginning with the 10th team foul:
 - o any common foul shall result in two free throws, and the offended team shall retain possession;
 - o any player control foul shall result in disallowing a converted basket and in two free throws, and the offended team shall retain possession;
 - o any shooting foul with a missed basket shall result in two free throws, and the offended team shall retain possession;
 - o and any shooting foul with a converted basket shall result in the basket being awarded along with one free throw, and the offended team shall retain possession.
- ? During the last two minutes of the each half, and during any overtime period, the automatic awarding of team possession after free throws does not apply (live rebounding will be in effect).
- ? Three point shots are allowed.
- ? The NSGA Sport Rules for Basketball are governed by the current NCAA rules.
- ? Officials do not put the ball in play, except at the start of each half.
