  - a. The deliberate stalling rule is in effect during the entire first half and the first 10 minutes of the second half. Once the 20-second shot clock comes into effect (final 2 minutes of the game and in overtime periods), the deliberate stalling rule will no longer be in effect.

  - b) After a turnover or defensive rebound, the ball may be returned to any point behind the check line. The player returning the ball behind the check line shall be in possession of the ball with both feet behind the line. The ball does not have to pass behind the 3-point line; only the player's feet.

13. Player restrictions when inbounding the ball:

  - c) The inbounder may not hand-off the ball to a teammate.
  - d) The inbounder’s teammates may not enter the three-second lane to receive a pass or set a screen until the inbounding teammate actually takes possession of the ball at the throw-in area; they may cross and exit the lane to reposition themselves prior to the inbounds pass.
